

Establishment of Taiwan Hakka Speech Database by the Hakka Affairs Council- Intellectual Property Protection and Confidentiality Consent Form

The undersigned (hereinafter referred to as "I") participating in the "2023 Formosa Speech Recognition Challenge (Hakka ASR)" (hereinafter referred to as "the event"), hereby agrees to abide by the following terms and conditions of this consent form:

Article 1 I understand that full participation in the event is required, and I must submit the recognition results, corresponding recognition scores, recognition system description, and the submitted paper to ROCLING 2023 conference within the specified deadline in order to obtain authorization for the "Taiwan Hakka Speech Data" established by the Hakka Affairs Council. Otherwise, I shall not further use the speech data and must immediately delete all speech data and related files.

Article 2 I understand that the provided speech data by the organizer is owned by the organizer, and I shall exercise due care and only use it for academic research or technical development purposes. It is prohibited to exploit the content of the speech data for commercial purposes.

Article 3 I hereby agree to strictly comply with the intellectual property rights agreements set forth below:

1. Comply with the copyright regulations to protect the authors' copyrights.
2. Comply with the copyright statement or authorization of all software.
3. In the case of any of the following circumstances violating the laws of the Republic of China or laws of a territory other than the Republic of China, I will undertake all responsibilities:
 - (1) Use or copy, distribution, lending, or sale to a third party in violation of the intellectual property statement of this Activity.
 - (2) Illegal use of reproduced software without permission, violating the regulations of the Copyright Act.
 - (3) Download, use, or revision of computer programs, pictures, or writing from the Internet, violating the regulations of the Copyright Act.

(4) Other acts that violate the law.

Article 4 I agree to properly keep the confidential information obtained from or possessed due to this Activity with due care of good administration and will not disclose or deliver any such information to any third party or inform any third party without permission. Even if this Activity is terminated or cancelled, I am still obligated to confidentiality. If the aforementioned is violated, I shall compensate the interested party for any interest lost and damages suffered.

Article 5 Where an organizer or associate units suffer damage due to my violation of the aforementioned regulations, I shall undertake all compensation responsibilities to the organizer or associate units.

Article 6 Both parties agree to settle any disputes arising from this Statement in good faith. Upon failure to reach a settlement, both parties agree that Taiwan's Taipei District Court shall be the juridical court of first instance.
